

Unveiling The Reciprocity Mural

Published 11/10/2022 by Stephanie Conte

The Reciprocity Mural, a stunning floor-to-ceiling art display, has been unveiled at the recently-renovated Newnham Campus Cafeteria, which has been thoughtfully renamed, The Pond.

Spanning seven walls, the mural highlights Seneca's seven campuses as well as its diverse community, teaching and learning spaces, and landscapes.

Under the artistic direction of JoAnn Purcell, Program Co-ordinator, Illustration diploma program, and Martha Newbigging, Program Co-ordinator, Art Fundamentals certificate program, a team of five artists — all Seneca graduates — took on the task of seeing the project through from conceptualization to completion.

Read more about the mural

tags : feature-stories