

Seneca graduate encouraging diverse leadership in commercial real estate

Published 1/18/2023 by Stephanie Conte

Andrel Wisdom, a graduate of Seneca's Real Property Administration \(RPA\) program, is paving the way for equity-deserving youth in Edmonton through a non-profit social impact enterprise called The REET Institute.

REET offers free programming designed to train, develop and mentor high school students to become the next generation of investors, owners and leaders in commercial real estate. It was co-founded in 2022 by Mr. Wisdom, his partner Kryzia Wisdom and another couple, Enyinnah and Michelle Okere.

Learn more about The REET Institute

tags : feature-stories