

Enhance your leadership skills by becoming a Peer Mentor

Published 9 days ago by Stephanie Conte

Apply to become a Peer Mentor and help new Seneca students succeed in a postsecondary environment. This leadership opportunity is open to those enrolling in full-time classes for the May (Summer) or Fall (September) 2025 terms.

Key dates:

- Apply to become a mentor by Friday, March 28
- Interviews will take place Monday, March 31 to Friday, April 4
- Training for mentors will take place virtually on Wednesday, April 23 and in person on Tuesday, April 29.
- This volunteer role runs from Monday, May 5 to Friday, Aug. 15.

Some benefits of becoming a Peer Mentor include:

- Get career-ready and world-ready – develop your communication, leadership and collaboration skills
- Give back – Be an active citizen and share your time and knowledge with new students and help them as they make their transition to Seneca
- Expand your network – gain networking opportunities to connect with the larger Seneca community

Apply to become a Peer Mentor today.

tags : student-news