Season 5, Episode 1: David Agnew

Published 2/16/2023 by Stephanie Conte

President David Agnew joins host Pat Perdue for the first episode of Season 5. They discuss some of the many ways in which technology is affecting our lives on and off campus, including the more flexible classroom experience, the emergence of AI tools like ChatGPT and a recent Seneca project that took inspiration from the Apple Store. Also covered are the return to campus and Seneca's new Strategic Plan.
