

Gain a global experience at Seneca

Published 2/24/2023 by Stephanie Conte

(GLE) develops opportunities for you to gain relevant international and intercultural experience both at home and abroad.

Through GLE, you gain a global perspective and develop new skills for personal, professional and academic growth. Other benefits of a GLE experience, include adding a global dimension to your studies and developing global skills through innovative opportunities at Seneca.

Current GLE opportunities include:

- Take a course abroad this summer at one of our partner schools in France, The Netherlands, South Korea or the United Kingdom; application deadline is Wednesday, March 15
- Complete a semester abroad through our Outbound Semester Exchange program; application deadline for the Fall 2023 Term is March 15 and Sunday, April 30 for the Winter 2024 Term
- keep an eye out for new Faculty-led programs in Japan and Thailand

Funding for global learning opportunities is available through the International Experience Grant and Global Skills Opportunity, for those who meet funding criteria.

For every GLE experience, you will be provided with the support to make it happen and make it meaningful.

For more information, visit the GLE space on MySeneca or review the FAQs. You can also discover what other students have to say or watch a student testimonial video.

Considering a global learning opportunity is a big decision, and the GLE team is here to support you. Email your questions to global.learning@senecacollege.ca or sign up for an information session.

tags : student-news